

Requirements and conditions to participate in the European Summer School Berlin 2011

1. Social work student

You can participate in the Summer School if you are a student in 2nd, 3rd or 4th year of a bachelor program or of a master program in social work.

2. Topic of the Summer School 2011

This year we'll focus on the topic >Human Rights< which should attract all students in Eastern and Western Europe due to different reasons. On our website you find an outline of the preliminary program.

3. Application

For application you need a motivation letter (one page) and a letter of recommendation by a professor or lecturer. Also fill out the application form.

The deadline is May 1st, 2011. On the website you can download the application form.

4. Your contribution

As you have seen at the preliminary program we'll probably organize 4 workshops where you have the chance and the duty to present a paper which will be a contribution from you country and your standpoint to the topic of the Summer School.

5. European Credits Transfer System

If you participate in the Summer School which is a recognized module in our study program of social work you will get 3 ECTS. If you will later send us a paper of your workshop contribution which we can publish on our website then you will get 5 ECTS.

6. Participation fees

The participation fees are €280. For this money you will get in Berlin:

- a free bed in the home of a student of our university
- a free ticket for the public transport
- a welcome and farewell party and
- some cultural events in Berlin

You have to pay the fees until July 1st, 2011. The account is:
